MALAYSIAN TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROGRAMME (MTCP)

The Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP) was officially launched on 7 September 1980 at the Commonwealth Head of State Meeting in New Delhi to signify Malaysia's commitment to South-South Cooperation in particular Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC).

The programme forms part of the commitment of the Malaysian Government towards the promotion of technical cooperation among developing countries, strengthening of regional and sub-regional cooperation, as well as nurturing collective self-reliance among developing countries.

Annually, more than 80 MTCP Programmes are offered by approximately 80 MTCP training institutions/agencies, many of which are centres at excellent for training. Since its inception, more than 32,000 participants have undergone various training under MTCP. As of 2016, MTCP has extended its recipient countries to 143 developing nations for training within its ten (10) key areas.

THE OBJECTIVES OF MTCP

- To share development experiences with other countries;
- To strengthen bilateral relations between Malaysia and other developing countries;
- To promote South-South Cooperation (SSC); and
- To promote Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC)

INSTITUTE FOR RURAL ADVANCEMENT (INFRA)

The Institute For Rural Advancement (INFRA) was established under the Ministry of Rural and Regional Development, Malaysia.

INFRA is a training and research institution that bridges the gap between the world of academic studies or development practitioners and implementers. It is the Malaysian international centre for research and training in non-formal education and rural management programmes.

Accordingly, INFRA's programmes and activities have been directed towards management of rural development.
