GOVERNOR'S MEMORANDUM 05/2013
ADDITIONAL REMUNERATION PAID FOR EPC OFFICERS
WHEN APPOINTED AS DIRECTOR / PROJECT STAFF IN ADDITION TO THEIR PRESENT DUTIES

Whenever a serving officer is appointed as a Project Director or a Project Staff to a project carried by the Eastern Provincial Council or by the Government of Sri Lanka, it is imperative that the Governor's approval is obtained for such release through the Chief Secretary, EPC.

No officer is to be appointed for more than one project at any one time.

However where it is necessary to appoint an officer already nominated to an on-going project to another project due to non-availability of a suitable another officer, such officer should be paid only a sum equivalent to 50% of the specified allowance paid for that second project.

The above rule will not apply to officers who have been already nominated for more than one on-going projects as at today.
